Why Join the Bamboo Society of India (BSI)?

The Bamboo Society of India, a 35-year-old NGO, is dedicated to advancing and strengthening India's bamboo sector. Bamboo represents strength, growth, profitability, and sustainability—a versatile resource with immense potential. Whether you're a farmer, artisan, entrepreneur, or researcher, joining BSI empowers you to shape the future of this thriving industry.

Benefits of Joining BSI:

- Knowledge & Expertise: Access the latest bamboo-related information, insights from experts, and connections to BSI's network of specialists.
- Guidance: Receive expert advice on bamboo farming (avoiding pitfalls from unreliable nurseries or tissue culture labs), industry development, trading, treatment, and processing.
- National Bamboo Mission (NBM): Get support to navigate NBM programs, including accessing government subsidies.
- Networking: Connect with investors, stakeholders, and like-minded individuals, institutions, and industries in the bamboo sector.
- Opportunities: Participate in free seminars, webinars, workshops, conferences, and bamboo tours organized by BSI.
- Resources: Gain free access to valuable bamboo-related information and opportunities to supply bamboo plants when CSR funds are available.
- Community Support: Collaborate to develop bamboo in your region and contribute to a sustainable green movement.

Let's grow together!
